Dear [REDACTED] Thank you very much for your Investment application! We reviewed the provided data and conducted a brief initial review of your business model and market, and we have decided to pitch to pitch you to our investment committee internally. To further pursue your application, we require your latest Pitch Deck or company presentation and a standardized "company snapshot" report from DealMatrix, a startup valuation platform. Using the shared link, you'll receive a free credit from us, which can be used to generate one PDF report. Don't hesitate to contact me in case there is anything unclear with the valuation engine. Usually, we will be able to come back to you with a decision on whether to start negotiations or not to pursue your application further within a week after receiving the report.

I am looking forward to receiving your report!

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
Analyst
